

3 easy steps to getting started with pure haven

So glad you've decided to join us in sharing our important non tox message and products! Getting started is as easy as 1-2-3, as you make an incredible difference in the world, one family at a time.

Share 5

Share five faves with five friends.

Hold 2

Hold two launch events.

Pick two dates that work for your schedule and invite family and friends to learn about Pure Haven at a casual gathering.

Invite 2

Ask two friends to join you.

Let them know about the Consultant benefits you enjoy most, like wholesale pricing on the best non toxic products available, 10% product credits back on wholesale orders, and free delivery on wholesale orders of $100+!

Pro Tip: Don't have five faves yet? Try ours and share them! Easy-to-share graphics are available to download from pheteamtools.com in the New Consultant Start section.

Pro Tip: In-person launches are fun, rewarding, and simple to do (they're simply parties or open houses). Plus, you share our non tox message and products with more people at once instead of sharing with one person at a time.

Pro Tip: Starting this business with a friend is way more fun!

BONUS STEP: Ask everyone you share Pure Haven with to create a Customer account and refer a friend using their personal referral link to earn free product credits. Referrals are the key to growing your business and your rewards!
